

UXBRIDGE THEATRE

UXBRIDGE Theatre is part of the UXBRIDGE Arts & Culture centre in historic Howick, and is the hidden gem of East Auckland. The centre hosts the Malcolm Smith Gallery, Arts Studios, a Café and newly refurbished UXBRIDGE Theatre. UXBRIDGE wants to work with the very best performers around, whilst encouraging and supporting the next generation of talent.

The UXBRIDGE Theatre building was originally a church and although this space is being refurbished with fresh configuration brand new lighting and sound, it will not lose its unique boutique style which attracts audiences from surrounding areas and beyond.

Interested in being part of our programme?

We want UXBRIDGE to be the performance venue for Theatre, Music, Dance, Comedy, Film and everything in between. It is our aim to ensure that we offer a balanced, year-round programme that appeals to, and attracts, a diverse range of audiences. To enquire about the possibilities of being involved, please complete an Expression of Interest form and email it through to Ashley Grogan at: events@uxbridge.org.nz.

The UXBRIDGE Theatre is in demand, and as such we cannot guarantee inclusion of your event in our programming.

After completing an Expression of Interest form, we will consider your project carefully. Our priority is to programme professional performing acts and companies with a performance history.

Interested in hiring UXBRIDGE Theatre for an event?

Whilst our main purpose is as a venue for performing arts, UXBRIDGE Theatre is also available for corporate, community or private hire. Our venue offers a fantastic setting to host dance recitals, fundraising events, school performances, launches or networking events.

Interested in hiring UXBRIDGE Theatre for meetings and presentations?

We can offer full audio-visual services and delegate catering, or more formal dining for smaller groups. Our adjacent meeting room is ideal for breakout facilities or buffet lunches.
